

Welcome to our 2007/08 catalogue

At Nielsen we are passionate about investing in our products to bring unique advantages to retail framers and galleries.

Our 'working smarter' logo, shown in this catalogue, highlights product areas where we believe our investment in design and technology offers the independent retail framer significant opportunities to develop value added sales. We hope you will find these and all our products successful in your business and, as always, we look forward to working with you.
